Department of Dentistry

Diane Carle, DVM, DAVDC

Dr. Carle is a Diplomate of the American Veterinary Dental College. She received her undergraduate degree from Swarthmore College and her Veterinary Medical Degree from Tufts University, and completed her residency in veterinary dentistry and oral surgery in Massachusetts.

Dr. Carle is a member of the Foundation for Veterinary Dentistry and the American Veterinary Medical Association.

She has been an Assistant Adjunct Professor at the Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine at Tufts University. Her experience includes numerous publications, being co-chair of the AVDC-Sponsored Dental Track at the Veterinary Dental Forum and chair of the Forum Review and Assessment Exam. She is also a member of the AVDC Training Support Committee.

Dr. Carle volunteers for the Peter Emily International Veterinary Dental Foundation, and has performed root canal treatments on several tigers and a bear.

Dr. Carle enjoys writing about and teaching veterinary dentistry and when not at work, enjoys jewelry making and biking. She has two cats, Kitten and Quinn. Quinn was a rescue kitty who had surgery and two root canals to treat an unhealed jaw fracture and is now fully recovered from his surgery.
